Marketing Strategy

Tip #1: PROVIDE FREQUENT UPDATES

Keep regular and new players informed about upcoming events and promotions.

Tip #2: ADVERTISE YOUR MISSION/CAUSE WHEN IT'S APPROPRIATE

Motivating volunteers by reminding them of your cause. Consider making your cause part of your message—both before and during your gaming occasion. It's important to note, however, that mentioning the gross amount of money raised is often considered inappropriate.

Tip #3: BUILD OR ADD TO SOCIAL MEDIA PRESENCE

While not all players will be heavy social media users, social networking sites can help you find and attract new audiences and doesn't cost anything. If people are searching for charities or charitable gaming, you want them to be able to find yours. Think of it this way: social networking sites provide another way to serve customers and to start a one-to-one conversation with current and potential players.
